Deadline to sign up: May 1, 2008

We must have forty (40) people minimum for this trip.

If we do not reach that number, the trip will be cancelled.

Saturday, July 12 -- 7:30 a.m., load Star of Indiana bus at Speedway Baptist Church, 2986 Moller Road, Speedway, IN 46224, and depart at 8:00 a.m. Noah Young will be our driver again this year. Go to Chambersburg, PA (506 miles), and check in to the Hampton Inn, 955 Leshar Road, phone 717-261-9185, where we will stay three nights.

Sunday, July 13 – Tour Gettysburg, 9:00 to 11:00, with guide Terry Latschar. Lunch in Gettysburg. Back in Chambersburg, tour with Ted Alexander, historian and author, from 3:00 to 6:00 p.m., seeing John Brown sites, hearing about the burning of Chambersburg, and other 1862 and 1864 events. Dinner on your own near the motel. Evening of card playing in the motel lobby.

Monday, July 14 – Walking tour of the town of Gettysburg, 9:00 to 10:30, in three groups (slow walkers, regular, adventurous), seeing places that tell about the civilians' experiences and Lincoln's visit. Lunch on your own. Free time in the afternoon in Gettysburg, with the bus dropping off and picking up at requested locations. Dinner at 6:30 at the historic Cashtown Inn, which is opening just for our group.

Tuesday, July 15 -- Check out of the Chambersburg Hampton Inn, and go to Harrisburg, arriving about 9:00 at Harrisburg Cemetery, which we will see Confederate and Union graves. At 10:00 a.m., we arrive at the National Civil War Museum, which we tour on our own, then eat box lunches in their café or on the bus. Drive an hour and a half from Harrisburg to Frederick, and tour the Civil War Medical Museum from 2:30 to 4:00. Check into the Hampton Inn, 5311 Buckeytown Pike, Frederick, MD; phone 301-698, 2500, where we will stay for three days. Evening speaker: George Wonderlink, playing a banjo and singing Civil War songs.

Wednesday, July 16 – Tour Monocacy National Battlefield with park ranger, Brett Spalding. Lunch in Frederick. Tour of the town of Frederick, from 1:30 to 3:00 with step-on guide. 3:00 to 4:00, tour the museum house of Roger Brooke Taney, the chief justice of the Supreme Court who wrote the Dred Scott decision. Dinner near our motel in Frederick. Evening speaker: Dr. John Rathgub on the treatment of wounds then and now.

Thursday, July 17 – Tour Antietam and Harper’s Ferry, from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., with guide Steve Malovich. Box lunch at the town park in Boonsboro. Evening speaker: Brett Spalding, park ranger, on Point Lookout Prison.

Friday, July 18 – Check out of Hampton Inn. Depart Frederick, MD and drive 550 miles to Speedway, IN, arriving about 7:00 or 8:00 p.m.

You do not need to be a member of any Civil War Round Table to come on this trip. We will have a release form for your parked car when you arrive at the church.

Please send a check for $50.00 per person as down payment, no later than May 1, 2008. Final payment of $600.00 is due by June 10.
